

The Vines March 11, 2016 Auction Items

CELEBRATE
Gisborne

Supporting Sponsors

Comforting Sponsors

Caring Sponsors

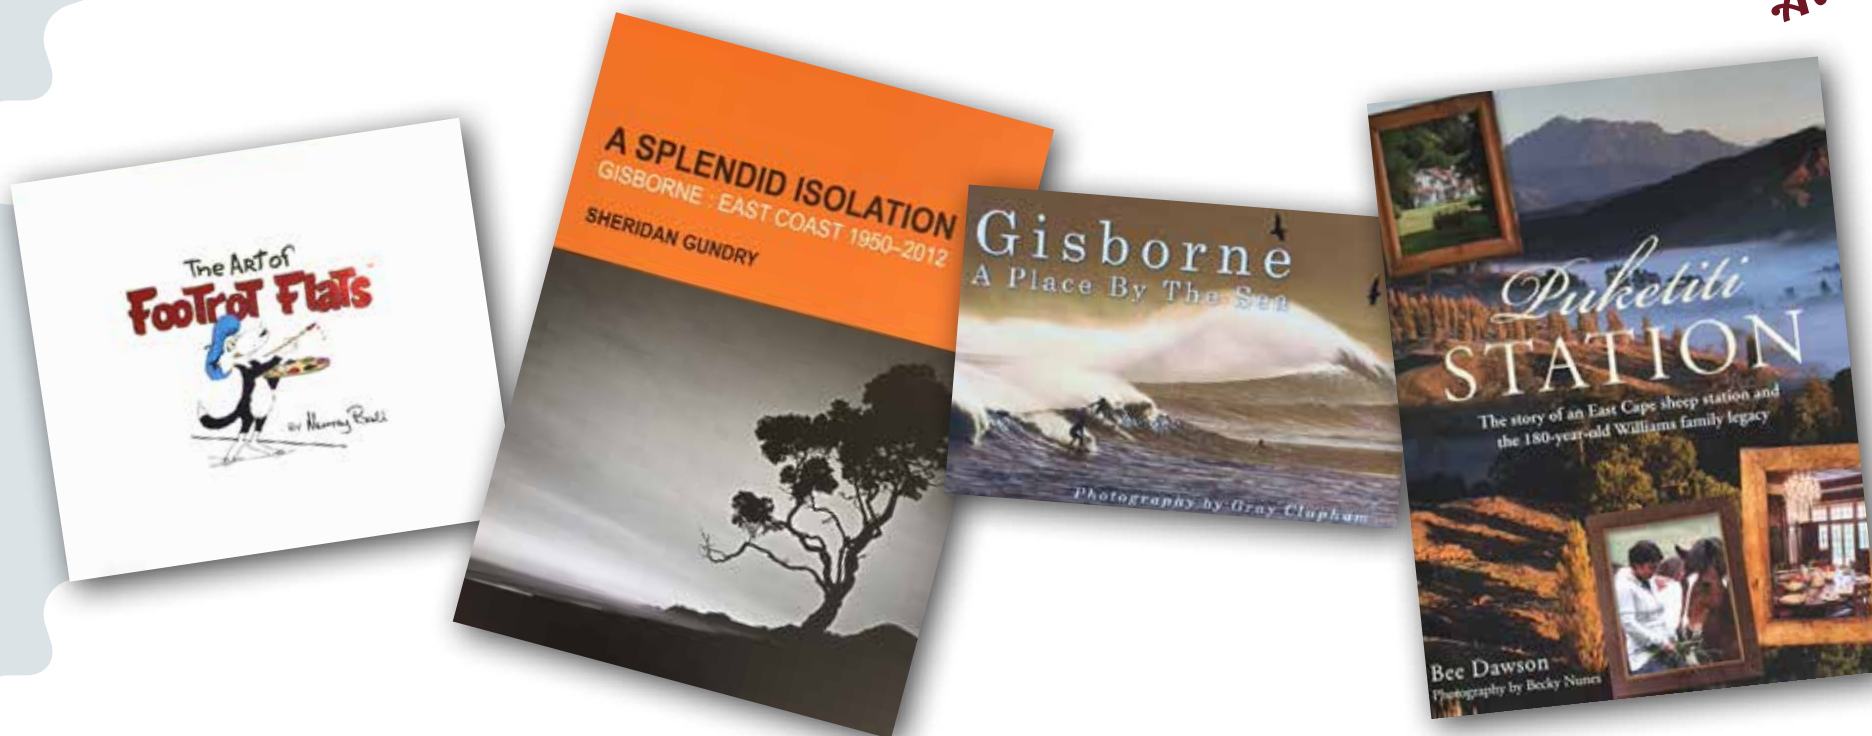

McInnes Driver Training | Craigs Investment Partners

Universal Engineering | Stonehaven Memorials

D.Stevens Ltd | Emerre & Hathaway | City Medical

Evans Funeral Services Ltd | Dave Gooch Spray & Signs

A piece of Gissy history...

MUIRS BOOKSHOP
ESTABLISHED 1905
& Café

Kindly donated by

An absolute must for your library at home or your boardroom/reception area at work. Iconic books including, Puketiti Station, Gisborne: A Place By The Sea, A Splendid Isolation, and to top it off, a signed copy of The Art of Footrot Flats, a true Gissy icon.

Fishing for four on 'ABOUT TIME'...

Kindly donated by the Peters Family

Enjoy a day with skipper Snowy aboard About Time. Relax and unwind catching your dinner. A delicious picnic lunch provided for your family or a group of friends.

Kauri Bowl...

Kindly donated by John Hall

Handcrafted by John Hall from majestic Kauri and Paua, this bowl has been made from wood discarded from the early 20th century. A stunning item to add to your home.

Studio Audience Voucher for...

2016 Series - 2 Reserved Seats

Kindly donated by Media Works

Two tickets to the filming of the hilarious comedy TV3 show '7 Days'. There is a waiting list of over 4000 people for the filming, so this is a prize that $ can't buy. Filmed in Auckland.

Date: to be confirmed

Venue: NZ Live Studio, 60 Stanley Street, Grafton

Time: 5:45 – 6pm Audience Arrive

6 – 9:30pm Audience in to Studio for show recording.

Age: 18 years +

Cash Bar

Silk Butterfly Dress Sheryl May...

Kindly donated by Sheryl May

International clothes designer our very own Sheryl May has kindly donated the beautiful butterfly print silk maxi dress, from her original one of a kind range.

This is packaged with a voucher from Footloose for $100 to make the outfit complete.

footloose

Peaceful Corner of Wainui...

Donated by Cris Morrell

Local artist Cris Morrell's painting is a view from the wall looking back down from the lighthouse at the far end of Wainui Beach. "It is a beautiful little peaceful corner of Wainui." Cris's work doesn't come up often at events like this so don't miss out on the opportunity to own one.

Helicopter Scenic Flight...

Kindly donated by Ashworth Helicopters

Enjoy a scenic flight for four around our district, taking in some of our beautiful scenery from a birds eye view, including beaches and farmland.

Meng the Masterchef...

Degustation for up to 12 people Kindly donated by Meng Foon

Let the mayor be your personal chef for a night. Degustation for up to 12 people. Work with the mayor to decide on the menu. You organise the location, shop for groceries then let the mayor cook and entertain you. Countdown have donated $100 towards groceries.

Tangata Whenua...

Kindly donated by Peggy Erickson

These three unique Maori inspired cloaked female sculptures have been donated by our local nationally celebrated clay artist. Peggy has been an artist for 28 years and is well known for her hand built organic creations.

Grazing the Haast - Peter Brown...

Kindly donated by Catherine Brown

Peter Brown was one of New Zealand's finest exponents of the classical painting tradition. He is internationally recognised for his landscape, still life, portrait and flower studies. Peter also was a World War II veteran, and the winner of the Kelleher NZ art award. Peter passed in 2005.

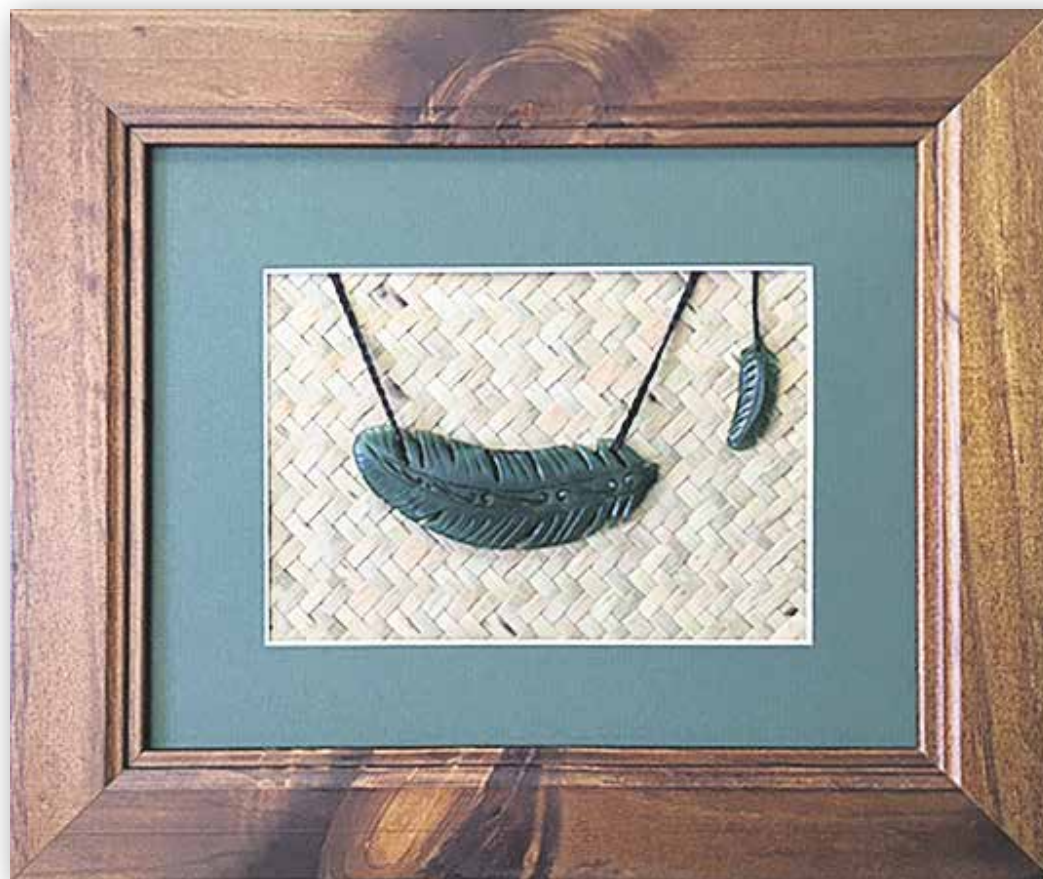

Tokomaru Bay Beach Bach...

Kindly donated by Mclean family

East Coast beaches are arguably the best in NZ. Spend the weekend in Tokomaru Bay with family or friends. This Bach sleeps up to 3 couples, so there is plenty of room to sit back and relax for the weekend. Enjoy the sun rising and a stroll along the wharf in the evening.

A wing and a prayer...

Kindly donated by Stone Studio

Greenstone or Pounamu was originally fashioned into tools and jewellery by early Maori centuries ago. It is still treated with the highest respect and pride today. When in your possession it brings a spiritual and emotional tie to New Zealand, the country of origin.

Celebrate Gisborne food...

Enjoy

This is an extravagant package for food lovers at a selection of our finest restaurants. You choose the date and the diners. A $200 voucher has been kindly donated by each of these local restaurants. USSCO, The Vines, The Marina, Peppers Beachfront and SOHO.

Craig Willson Silk Magic...

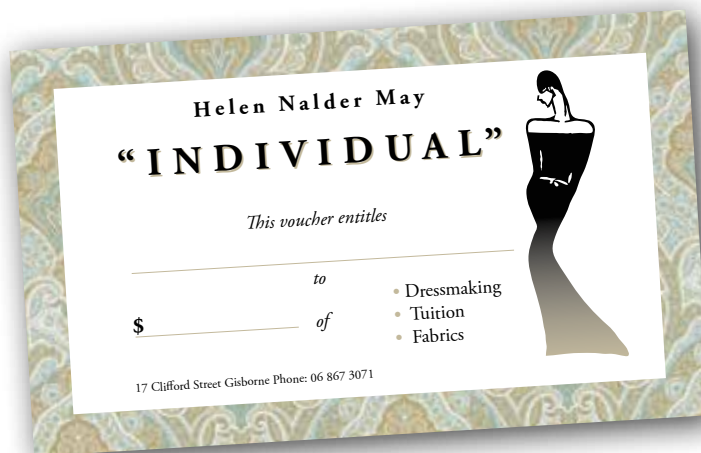

Kindly donated by Craig Willson Photography

Sunset over Tuahine Point, Wainui Beach.

Craig Willson from Double U Design Ltd, has donated auction pieces in past events for Hospice.

This is printed on a silk like fabric and mounted to board. Size of 1130x410mm.

Voucher from Helen Nalder May and Beauty package...

Kindly donated by Helen May

Helen May is one of Gisborne's elite dressmakers making classic pieces, for all occasions. Her detail is exquisite and once you discover her I guarantee you will want to complete your whole wardrobe with her creations.

Kindly donated by Juve

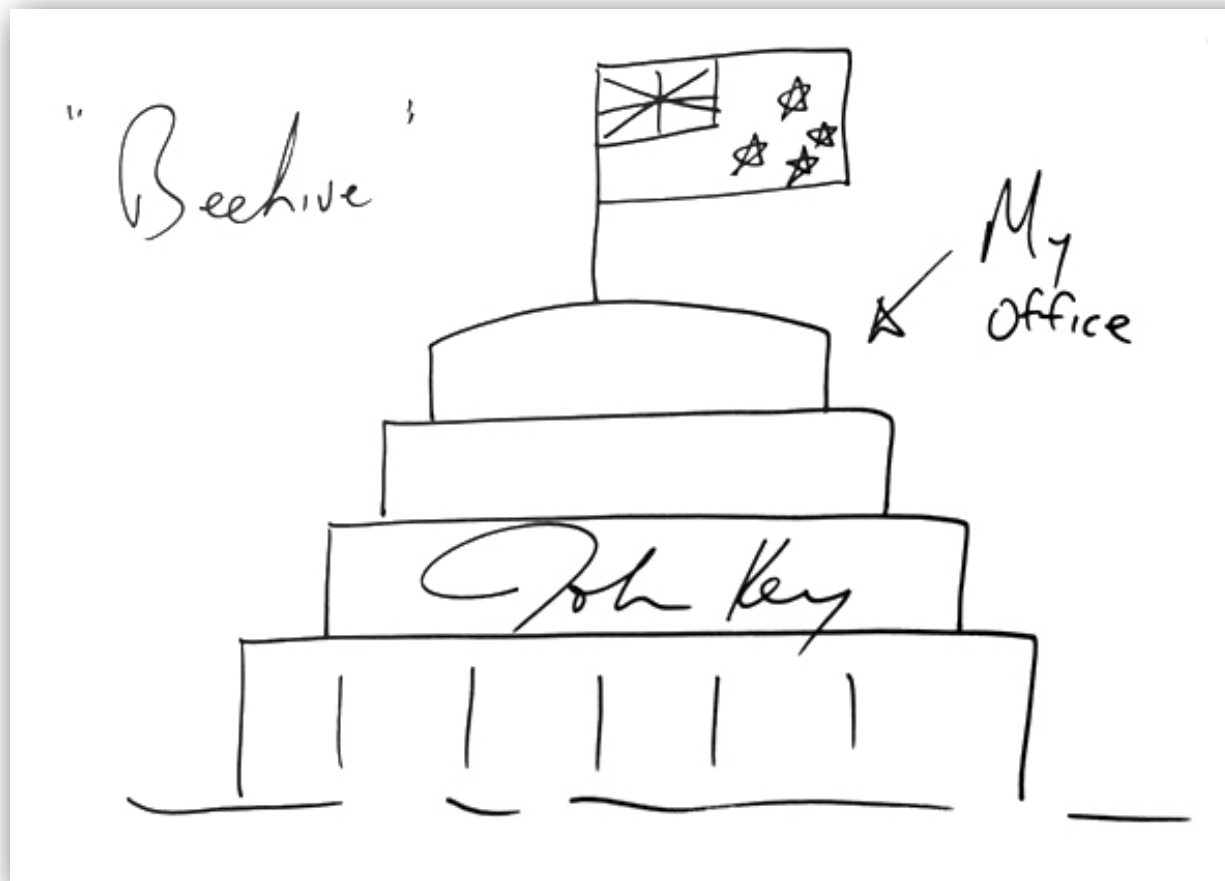

This is packaged with a facial, manicure, pedicure and a luxurious back, neck and shoulder massage from Juve - Gisborne's Elite beauty clinic that was rated the best clinic in NZ for 2013. Always an incredible experience when you go.

Kindly donated by Nova Hair

Also Nova hair boutique will complete the look with creating a new makeover for you, includes cut and colour.

My Office...

Kindly donated by John Key

Our esteemed Prime Minister has extended his talents to sketch a place close to his heart. The Beehive is a signed one off sketch. Interesting which flag John has put on the beehive...

Shopping trip for two...

This package has been kindly donated by the Todd/Penny family.

Your own personal pilot Matt, will fly you and a friend to either Mt Maunganui or Hawkes Bay. Spend the day shopping, having lunch, or whatever takes your fancy. At the end of the day Matt will fly you home.

Weaving - Pirihira Hall...

Kindly donated by Pirihira Hall

Originally from Rotoiti but now living in Gisborne. Piri said that weaving is in the blood, with her mother and sisters both taking part. The involvement over time is what slowly but inevitably leads to the understanding. "I weave because I love it". "I hope you will love and treasure this piece. It's a little piece of me".

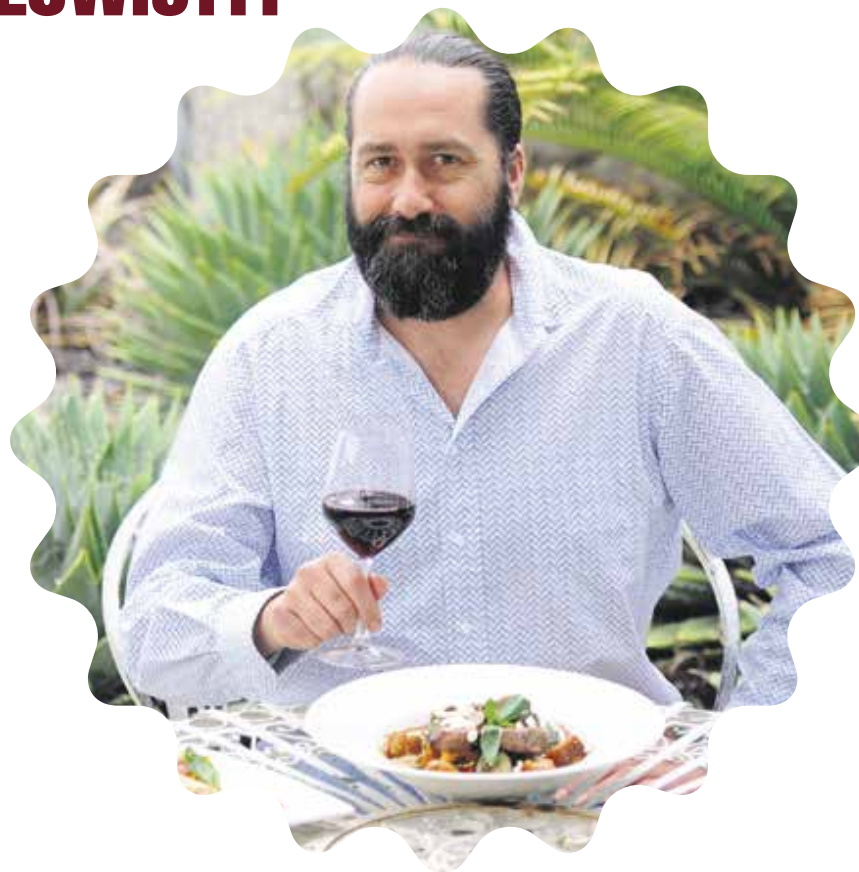

Hurricanes' signed playing jersey...

Kindly donated by the 2016 Hurricanes squad

This framed jersey is signed and donated by the 2016 Hurricanes squad, including local boys Jamison Gibson Park, Blade Thomson and ex Champion College student, James Broadhurst.

Dinner Party at home with Chef Bryn Lewis...

Kindly donated by Bryn Lewis

Allow Bryn (The Vines head chef) to come into your home and tickle your taste buds. You provide the ingredients and the friends, then sit back and let Bryn work his magic. This package is for 8 people and will include a case of wine from Hihi.

Kiwi enclosure experience...

Kindly donated by

Up close and personal with our iconic bird, the Kiwi. Take a group of 10 for a drive to Motu and see where the Kiwi are born and looked after until they are set free into the wilderness. You will also have the opportunity to touch the Kiwi. A once in a lifetime opportunity for some of us.

Mitre Rocks at Tolaga Bay...

Kindly donated by Tony Ogle

Tony's colourful work captures the heart and soul of beautiful coastlines. Now living in Gisborne, Tony has kindly donated this beautiful piece from Mitre Rocks at Tolaga Bay. He chose this because of the local relevance to people living here.

Anaura Bay Beauty...

Kindly donated by Tim and Bron Gaddum

Located on an elevated section in beautiful Anaura Bay, this large kiwi Bach sleeps up to 12 people and is just what you need to escape our busy everyday lives for 3 nights. A view to die for from the front deck overlooking the ocean.

Travel to wonderful Wanaka...

Kindly donated by Dave & Libby Streeter and Elliot Travel.

*WOW, Wanaka for the week. Explore the South Island while you are there. This Wanaka house has room for up to 3 couples for one entire week. It also includes $1000 worth of air travel...
Mountain bikes also available.*

Motu weekend away...

Kindly donated by Paparangi Ventures.

Four wheel driving at its finest for 4 people, from Motu into the wilderness. A fabulous hut to relax in when you get there or drop everything to go exploring. Make it a weekend of hunting and fishing or a weekend to just relax. This place is so beautiful you will not want to leave

Magical Melbourne getaway...

This package has been kindly donated by Robbie and Karen McCann from McCannics.

A romantic weekend away for two to Melbourne or maybe a shopping spree. Soak up the night life or go to the theatre, the choices are unlimited. Return flights and two nights' accommodation for two is just what the doctor ordered.

Diamond in a Glass

A first for Gisborne...

Kindly donated by

Glasses available on the night for purchase.

WINE v BEER

In an unusual twist, diners at Celebrate Gisborne will be pitching wine against beer to see what complements the courses the best. Each table will have a nominated vote counter and following the course a show of hands will decide the winner. Guests will also learn a little about the wine, beer and food of each course. In the end, there should be a winner!

THNAK YOU

Big thanks for Jackie's flights
kindly donated by...

AIR NEW ZEALAND

THANK YOU

Gisborne produce donated by ...

Pihikia
STATION

PAK'nSAVE

WAIMATA

THANK YOU

Gisborne wines donated by...

BUSHMERE
• ESTATE •

Matawhero

THANK YOU

Local businesses to thank...

